

Lead Enrichment with Intent

Get deeper insights right in your CRM or MAP with intent-enriched leads. See exactly how accounts interact with your business and what they're actively researching, all within your existing systems. This holistic view of leads and intent helps you engage in-market accounts at the perfect moment.

Intentsify's intent-activated solution is the best and easiest way to both get your branded content in front of targeted personas at intent-identified accounts and convert them into quality top-of-funnel leads.
